The said Francis Shalcroffs, and Sir Francis Boteler Knight, Grandfather by the Mothers side to the said Francis Boteler Shalcroffs, and all other Persons concerned in the Estate, conceiving it will be less prejudice to the said Francis Boteler Shalcroffs and others in Remainder, to Sell so much of the Premises as will pay the present Debts of the said Francis Shalcroffs, then to have the whole Estate Extended though but for the Life of the said Francis Shalcroffs, (great part of the Premises being antient Pasture Ground, and much thriving Wood growing upon other part; All which Pastures may be Plowed up, and Wood cut down by Extending Creditors,) are content so much Land may be sold, as will pay his Debts; And therefore make their humble Suit that an Act of Parliament may pass for that purpose.
